150 Lashes (4.2%) 9, 11

a refreshing australian-style cloudy pale ale with restrained bitterness and a clean, smooth finish. it's an easier-drinking beer than others in the james squire range and a familiar style that australian beer drinkers will recognise. the use of malted wheat also adds to its refreshing character delivering a beer with a fruity nose and hints of passionfruit, grapefruit and citrus.

White Rabbit Dark Ale (5.2%) 9, 12

mouth filling malt characters and a beautiful fruit driven complexity derived from the open fermenters, mix this with a reassuring bitterness from some aromatic hops and we reckon the result is a delightfully scrumptious ale!

Feral Hop Hog (5.8%) 9.5, 12.5

get a good whiff of this Feral Brewing Co beast that explodes with citrusy flavours and hop aromas, rounded out with a solid malt backbone. A farmload of American hops makes Hop Hog a uniquely Feral brew...and just a little fruity. Little drink a few pints of this beer and you'll soon become one of us...a certified "hophead" craving those crisp citrus flavours of grapefruit and passionfruit and maybe a bit of honey, all backed up with a good balance of bitterness.

Little Creatures Pale Ale (5.2%) 9, 12

Little Creatures Rogers (3.8%) 9, 11

Rogers' beer has a complex mix of malts combined with the unique little creatures hop character. it's a consistently crafted fabulous, easy drinking beer, with just the right amount of flavour for west australian hot days and barmy nights.

Little Creatures Furphy (4.4%) 9, 11 designed to be "quite different from the 'full-flavoured' space that Creatures usually plays in", this takes its inspiration from the German Kolsch style of ale.

Heineken (5.0%) 9, 11

back in 1873 a young entrepreneur named Gerard Heineken discovered a passion for brewing. At the heart of Heineken's success lie pure, natural ingredients: malted barley, water, hops and a small but significant extra called A-Yeast. 145 years on and over 25 million beers are poured to customers in over 192 countries. Enjoy.
